VOLUME XXV.

PARIS, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1905.

NUMBER 96

Unhesitatingly He Plunged Into the Chilly Waters.

Courtland Leer had nine fat hogs, one weighing 400 pounds, in a pen at Laughlin Bros. slaughter-house, on the banks of Stoner, awaiting to be slaughtered. The heavy rain Tuesday night caused Mr. Leersome uneasiness about his hogs and he drove out Wednesday morning to look after them. He found the nose of his 400-pounder just showing above the high water, the others having managed to get out. Just as the cold wave reached this section the brave and gallant Courtland could have been seen shedding his clothes to go to the rescue of his drowning pork-chops. Without hesitating he plunged into the chilly and muddy waters and after a hard fight with the swift current he succeeded in towing his hog to a safe landing.

Business Men Urge Granting of Franchise.

A committee of Mt. Sterling business men will go before the Montgomery Fiscal Court to-day and urge that body to grant the franchise to Y. Alexander and others for the building of an electric line from Paris to Mt. Sterling. This road is of vital importance to Mt. Sterling and surrounding territory, and we are informed that every honorable effort will be used to get the Court to grant the franchise asked for.

Positions Reversed.

Positions were reversed Wednesday when Deputy Sheriff Thomas Ward, and Frank Stepp, a young boy, convicted of the murder of his cousin, Tom Stepp, in Harlan county, en route to State Prison at Frankfort arrived at Lexington. The prisoner became the guard of the drunken officer and piloted the latter to Frankfort.

The Deputy Sheriff had to be carried from the train at Frankfort. The boy prisoner went before the Governor and told a straight-forward story of his crime, and was then taken to the prison. He made a very favorable impression on the Governor and steps will be taken to have him transferred to the Reform School.

An Unusual Suit.

Suit for $10,000 has been filed in Clark Circuit Court by E. T. Woodford, a young farmer, against H. B. Scrivner, a merchant of Winchester, and Sheriff Woodson McCord, for assault and battery.

Scrivner, it is said, accompanied by Sheriff McCord, went to the home of a man named Prewitt, where Woodford was, and called Woodford to the gate, beating him up with a buggy whip. Sheriff McCord, Woodford says, sat in the buggy sanctioning the thrashing. This the Sheriff denies.
